The Deficiency in the School Fund Discussed.

SEWER AND STREET WORK.

The Superintendent Declares Himself—Councilmen Rees and Tufts Exchange Compliments—General Routine Business.

It was 10:15 when the Council was called to order yesterday morning. President Boush and all eight of the local Senators were on hand.

The first business transacted was the canvass of the vote cast at the bond election on Friday last. Councilmen Innes and Sumnerland moved that the demand of Justice Lockwood be taken up and allowed. He said that it had been passed on twice and because Lockwood was arrested it was no reason why his salary demand should be delayed in payment. "It's something that's liable to happen to any of us at any time," he said. The debate was participated in quite generally by all of the members. The motion was finally lost by a vote of 3 to 6. Councilmen Alfaro, Innes and Nickell voting no.

THE LOCKWOOD DEMAND.
Councilman Sumnerland moved that the demand of Justice Lockwood be taken up and allowed. He said that it had been passed on twice and because Lockwood was arrested it was no reason why his salary demand should be delayed in payment. "It's something that's liable to happen to any of us at any time," he said. The debate was participated in quite generally by all of the members. The motion was finally lost by a vote of 3 to 6. Councilmen Alfaro, Innes and Nickell voting no.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The Council met at 2 o'clock, with President Boush in the chair and all the members present except Mr. Innes, who came in afterwards.

The report of the City Auditor was read and approved, when the report of the City Attorney was taken up, and the various recommendations adopted.

The Water Overseer presented a report for the past year, showing a deficit of $10,000. The City Engineer presented an ordinance for the improvement of San Julian street, which ordinance passed under a suspension of the rules.

The Street Superintendent presented his weekly report, and the recommendations were adopted.

Councilman Nickell moved that no more crosswalks be laid until fall, which motion prevailed by a vote of 6 to 3.

Three or four Councilmen reported that the pier of the Macy and Buena Vista street bridges had sunk slightly but would be placed in order. The last approach to the Seventh street bridge was washed out. All the other bridges are in good condition. Referred to the Bridge Committee.

The Street Superintendent asked for permission to purchase certain gravel. Referred to the Board of Public Works.

DECLARED HIMSELF.
The matter of weekly reports from the street department came up, and quite a discussion followed, in which the Street Superintendent declared himself, saying that he proposed to run the office from this time forward. He would do all that he could for the Council under the law.

Councilman McGarry stood firm in the position he had taken. He said that he had one hand of cards, and that he would not be handling a pick and shovel while the other sat on the sidewalk and looked on. He defied a truthful contradiction of his statement.

Councilman Nickell favored the city living within its means, while Councilman Innes wanted to know whether the Street Superintendent was wiser than the Council.

After some further talk, the matter was referred to the Board of Public Works, with the understanding that the Street Superintendent was to keep a daily bulletin, giving the location of the various gauges, the names of the foremen and the number of men employed.

On motion of Councilman McGarry, the report of the Sanja Committee, which failed to pass at the last meeting, recommending that the city be placed in the hands of Messrs. Heilman and Childs, the owners to pay half the expense, was reconsidered. A vote was then taken, and the report was adopted.

SIXTH STREET OPENING.
Mr. McMillan of the commission for the opening and widening of streets, appeared before the Council and made a statement in regard to the discontinuance of proceedings for the opening of West Sixth street. Mr. McMillan urged that if the street was abandoned, as a matter of justice, the Council should pay the expense of the work.

The amount involved is about $50,000. The Council decided to pay for the work, and the property owners cannot be made to pay a cent. The amount involved is about $50,000.

The Raymond and Whitcomb Mexico-California excursion will arrive at Colon this morning, en route to San Diego.

The Santa Fe overland train is reported to have been delayed in the morning, en route to San Diego.

The General Manager K. H. Wade of the Southern California yesterday went up to the mountains to look after the work going on there.

The Santa Ana branch of the Southern Pacific was not opened yesterday as was expected. Trains will be able to get through today, however.

Sylvester T. Everett, vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio road, is visiting in the city. He will depart for his home in the private car Annapolis.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company will send two representatives to South America to work up business for that line by way of New Orleans.

The Washburn Railway Company will build a branch line to Brazil. This looks like a good thing, as Brazil is a coal town in Indiana.

Until further notice no freight will be received for points on the Prescott and Arizona and Maricopa and Phoenix railroads. These little roads were both severely damaged by the recent floods.

Edward Tonkin, agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad at Seattle, has been arrested for embezzlement. The company will endeavor to force the gamblers in which the money was lost—about $5000—return it.

The largest potato shipment ever made from this State left San Francisco Sunday for Memphis, Tenn. The consignment consisted of over $5000 loaded on eleven cars. It is expected to deliver the trainload at its destination on Friday next.

High-Priced Horseflesh.
W. H. Wilson, the noted horseman of Cynthiana, Ky., and owner of Sultan, who has had several horses at the race-track in this city for some time past, made an important sale yesterday. Among the horses sold was the five-year-old gelding Greenleaf, four-year record 2:22 1/2, which was sold yesterday to C. G. Owens of Minneapolis. The price paid was $5000, $2500 cash, and the mare Nellie S, record 2:30, sold for $2500. By way of the date of the sale, Greenleaf was sold for $2500, which was a record for a horse of his age.

Mr. Wilson will go to San Diego for a few days, after which he will return to this city.

THE RAILROADS.

Judge Cooley on the Problem of Rate Making.

A NEW TRANSCONTINENTAL LINE.

How a Little Narrow Gauge is Likely to Grow—An Important Test Case—Rates and Shipments.

The Chronicle has discovered that the purchase of the little narrow-gauge road, known as the California and Nevada, which changed ownership some time ago, are Santa Fe people who intend to use it as a portion of a new line to run direct from San Francisco to a connection with the Colorado Midland, thus making a new and shorter transcontinental line. The purchasers are named explicitly as J. A. Williamson of the Atlantic and Pacific, the Grant Brothers who built a large portion of the Santa Fe, and others who live in the East. As an immediate effect of the deal, a large force of men will be put to work getting the road into shape, and trains will be run daily to the great advantage of the little section which it now traverses. Contracts for the change of gauge and additional grading were let on Monday last. According to the theory advanced, the road will be built over a line surveyed from Boulder to Poudre, and thence to the Colorado Midland, and the Colorado Midland, the western end of the line, that is, the little portion purchased last fall, is about twenty miles long and terminates at present at the entrance to the Moraga Valley. The Chronicle says that a very large area, in fact almost the entire valley of the Colorado, is very rich, is well watered and wooded and is looked to as a large contribution to the local trade of the present line and the transcontinental in the future when it is well opened up for general shipment.

ON RATE MAKING.
Judge Cooley, chairman of the Interstate Railroad Commission, said in his annual address to the convention of State Railroad Commissioners in Washington, the following as to rate making:

"There are mischiefs in railroad service that are outside of it, but we distinctly indicate the main source of difficulty when we place our finger upon the power as it exists now to make and unmake rates for passengers and freight transportation. So long as 500 bodies of men in the country are at liberty to make rate-sheets at pleasure, and to annul or change them at will, and to make or unmake them in every direction at their own discretion, or want of discretion, and with little restraint on the part of the law, it is not surprising that a few days' delay in putting changes in force, the problem will remain to trouble us, the mere existence of the power being a constant source of confusion and delay. The authority to reduce rates when they are found to be excessive, is but a slight corrective and teaches no lesson on the public side; and I need hardly remind you who understand it so well that in this matter of rates the power is in the hands of the railroad companies, and the power to do what is just to each other in respect to observing rates which they have once made, and to adhere to rate sheets until there is reasonable ground for changing them, is very slight that it may be regarded as too insignificant to be spoken of as possessing substantial value."

—GIVEN TO—

DR. WOH,

The Celebrated Chinese Physician.

I hereby testify that I have been under treatment of Dr. Woh, the celebrated Chinese physician of this city, the past few years for a complication of diseases of long standing and can gladly and sincerely say that he has cured me.

Santa Fe Hotel, Los Angeles, Cal.

For eight months past my wife was a great sufferer from female troubles. For days at a time her pain was so severe that no rest could be obtained except by the use of opiates. I called on Dr. Woh to visit Dr. Woh, the celebrated Chinese physician, the doctor undertook to cure her and now my wife is well and happy.

February 1st, 1891.

I want to add my testimonial to the remarkable manner in which Dr. Woh has cured me. I had for years been suffering from sciatica, my body at times being literally covered with sores and swellings. All treatment failed, until in a fit of desperation I called on Dr. Woh's office. He advised me and gave me medicine and in less than two months I was well and healthy. I do thank Dr. Woh for his great success.

January 1st, 1891.

For quite a number of years I have been a great sufferer and paid out large sums of money for doctors and medicines. My disease was claimed by some to be Bright's disease others said it was gravel but I could not find relief. I got worse and worse until my life was despaired of. The treatment and medicine prescribed by Dr. Woh, however, were a relief. Finally at the request of a friend who had been cured by Dr. Woh, I consulted him. He soon knew my trouble from the very first, and he restored me to health in a few weeks. I am now well and happy. I am a great debtor to Dr. Woh, and I am sure that all who are afflicted with similar troubles will be restored to health by his treatment. I am a great debtor to Dr. Woh, and I am sure that all who are afflicted with similar troubles will be restored to health by his treatment.

The olives, arachnoid, guavas, peaches and apples are grown at MENTON, have the same superior flavor that the orange has at that altitude, and the trees produce the largest crops of any on account of being away from the course of the north winds.

THE REPUBLICANS carried the Oakland election yesterday.

THE Tennessee River is now "on a bender" and doing a large amount of damage.

GOV. MARKHAM has vetoed an appropriation for delinquency in the Stockton Asylum.

THE business done in the land office at Visalia, during the year ending June 30, 1890, aggregated the large amount of $144,066.

THE Los Angeles County Teachers' Institute, which opened yesterday, is attended by several hundred teachers from all parts of the county.

THE examination of Boodier Bruner was proceeding at Sacramento yesterday. The Legislature does not appear to be over anxious to see the inside facts about Mr. Bruner's actions come out.

THE Bankers' Convention, which opens tomorrow, will be the first convention of the kind that has been held in the State. That it should meet in Los Angeles, the city of banks, is appropriate.

Two conventions and a fair draw a crowd of visitors that will tax the accommodations of Los Angeles. Some of our visitors may have to take up their quarters a little way from the business section, but there will be room for all.

This will be a busy week in Los Angeles. To begin with, there is the Teachers' Institute, now in session. This evening the citrus fair will be opened and tomorrow the Bankers' Convention holds its opening session. All these affairs, together with the latest news about the Senatorial election at Sacramento, will be fully described from day to day in the columns of THE TIMES.

PROF. DIETZ is the owner of a rare French work on the early missions of California, published in France in 1851, which is believed to be the only copy in the State. Bancroft and other prominent men who have studied the history of the State were not aware of its existence. Mr. Dietz is translating the book, which is being published in a weekly journal of this city.

BECAUSE the Senate Finance Committee reported adversely on Stanford's loan bill, the Argonaut refers to its chairman as the "octogenarian Senator from Vermont, whose senility and crabbedness are more apparent at every succeeding session." It further says that, notwithstanding the unfavorable report, the principles of the Stanford bill "will at length secure the affirmation of the people in such measure as to command Congress and compel the acquiescence of the executive department." Maybe, but, also, perhaps not.

THE Columbus, O., Express says: Los Angeles real estate speculators will probably not send out copies of THE TIMES of that city of the issue of February 16 as advertisements for the town. It contains 146 columns of delinquent tax list.

If this Ohio paper knew the true facts of the case—how wonderfully Los Angeles has held up under the reaction from the real estate boom, how many of these delinquent sales are for outside lots, and how the amount of the delinquencies has gradually decreased from year to year, it would see much encouragement for the city in this delinquent list.

JUDGE SHAW yesterday rendered a decision in the matter of the contest for control of the Public Library. He held that the recently-elected board has no authority, under the act of 1880, by virtue of which it came into existence, to exercise any jurisdiction over the library. The existing board rests its title under the act of 1874 and the subsequent legislation, including the present charter. A public library is an institution which can certainly be best managed by an appointive board, and the removal of the question from public consideration. The Los Angeles Public Library is a credit to the city, and a popular institution in which our citizens feel a justifiable pride.

THE FOOTHILL ROAD.

The attractive drives out of this city will eventually number half a dozen or more, but the one that will be especially inviting, by reason of the beauty of its scenery, will be the one leading to Santa Monica by way of the Chahuenga Valley and the Soldiers' Home. This road is now in bad condition—it is, in fact, obstructed by the inclosures of large Spanish land grants, and other encroachments; but these are regarded as temporary, and it is expected they will be removed before long.

Some fifteen or more years ago this great thoroughfare was definitely laid out and located by the foresight and solicitation of Judge Charles Lindley, the distinguished codifier of the laws of California, who was then living near the line of this road, at the base of the mountains, about half way between the city and the ocean, a place selected by him for its salubrity, he being at the time in precarious health. The road was named by him, the Los Angeles and Santa Monica Foothill road, and it is known by that name still and always will be. It begins on the city border at the western terminus of Temple street and makes something of a detour to the north, in order to keep on level, and at the same time, elevated ground. It thus forms, so far as nature can effect it, a most delightful drive down to that gem of seaside resorts, the embryo city of Santa Monica. As soon as you leave Temple street you come at once into the Chahuenga Valley, which, all along the line of this road, is rather a mesa than a valley, so that the Pacific Ocean is kept in plain view pretty much every step of the way till you reach it. On the other hand is the Santa Monica range of mountains, and the scenery along the route is everything that can be desired. A not uninteresting feature of the trip is that you are passing along the agricultural country, which is becoming known throughout the East as well as here as the frostless belt of Los Angeles county, and is remarkable for the production of "winter vegetables." The principal landmark on the line of this Foothill road is the Soldiers' Home, a place hardly less attractive than the seaside itself, which is only three or four miles further on. Other places on the line, but of less note, are the Dutch Church, Colegrove, Chahuenga, Monte Vista and Coldwater.

Under the Street Improvement Act, which has lately become a law at Sacramento, it is likely Temple street and Temple road will be furnished with a road, smooth pavement all the way out to the city limits. That done, and the Foothill road put in fair condition, people can make the trip to Santa Monica in their own conveyances, over a thoroughfare as pleasant in all respects as the drive in a city park. The route will not be as rich in artificial adornments as one through Central Park, but in natural beauties, grandeur of scenery, and richness of cultivation, it will far excel Central Park, or any other more city drive. The Foothill road may yet become for Los Angeles what the Cliff House road is to San Francisco, or the Shell road to New Orleans. All that is needed to make it such is to reopen it where it has been obstructed or encroached upon, and put it in proper order for public use, a task of no great magnitude. This consummation is called for by a city at either end of the line; at one end the most prosperous city in California, if not the most prosperous city in the United States, or in the world, and at the other end the most charming watering place to be found anywhere; the distance between them being only a pleasant drive, over a good road, of an hour or two at most. The expense of employing a competent engineer to ascertain the cost of putting this road in good traffic condition would be but trifling, and the municipal organization at either terminus of the road could well afford to incur it. It is conjectured that a very few thousand dollars would accomplish the desired end of opening up this great thoroughfare in most excellent shape; and if so, a better investment of the amount could not possibly be made.

While favoring this road, THE TIMES is opposed to none other, and is willing and anxious to lend a helping hand to any enterprise of the kind, in whatsoever direction it may extend out from the city.

THE CITRUS FAIR.

The Southern California Citrus Fair opens this evening. Everybody connected with the enterprise has been working hard and enthusiastically for weeks to make it a success and there is no doubt that they will succeed. There will be many novel features, notably a marked improvement in the artistic arrangement of the exhibits, which will be much appreciated and admired by the non-technical portion of the public.

All parts of Southern California which make a specialty of orange-growing, with one exception; and many sections in which citrus fruits are of subsidiary interest, have joined in the display and the result is a brilliant spectacle which will open the eyes of those who are unaware of the importance which our industry has arrived at. It is, indeed, an important industry and a rapidly growing one. It is one of the most highly remunerative of all the agricultural industries. There are few crops which pay so much to the acre as the noble orange. It takes but a moderate-sized ranch to yield $100,000 a year in full-bearing orange trees.

Many new arrivals, who see this grand display at the pavilion, will doubtless be tempted to go into the orange-raising business, and orange lands will be in extra demand. These people should inform themselves well on the subject, or they may meet with failure and become disappointed with the country. All land that is offered as orange land is not adapted to oranges and after the good land is secured there is much money and labor needed before the first crop is ready to market. These conditions being secured, however, there are few more profitable or pleasanter occupations.

THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

The Senatorial fight at Sacramento is now well on. The issues are joined. Henceforth the contest will be waged in earnest. Ballotting is to begin today. The contest is likely to be a bitter and, perhaps, a long one.

Our special dispatch from Sacramento this morning gives a picture of things as they are there. The picture is not an encouraging one. Brokers are offering votes for sale, as cattle are sold in the market, and holders of Federal offices have been summoned to aid in the election of a man who is friendly to the power through whom they received their appointments.

Nothing can be added to what has already been said by THE TIMES and other independent journals on this subject. It can only be repeated once more that the people are on the alert; that they demand and expect a new deal—a clean election. Will they get it?

THE school board finds itself in the unfortunate position that unless it obtains funds from some source it will have to close the schools on May 1, which would certainly be a misfortune, as the school term is, under ordinary circumstances, short enough. The school board will have to economize.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Tonight will witness the first production here of Boissier Kralitz's spectacular piece The Water Queen. It will be repeated at an afternoon and evening performance tomorrow.

On Thursday night All the Comforts of Home will have its first representation. The advance sale is said to be large.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE.—Uncle Tom's Cabin drew a large gallery audience last night. The piece will be repeated tonight.

THE SENATORSHIP.

No objection to Wealthy Men, but They Must Be Honest.

The death of Senator Hearst has invested the Senatorial issue with an interest and importance that will make it paramount to all others now before the public until it is disposed of. There are many reasons why this is so. First, it gives forth an intonation of some new to Californians, and somewhat altogether well for the ambitious projects of some individuals. They signify that the people have become apprehensive of the approach of the Senatorial contest, may degenerate into a public auction, at which the highest bidder for the seat of the dead Senator will become his successor; they are the precursors of a contest of the most desperate kind, in which the people demand that Senators as well as Congressmen shall represent them and not the money power exclusively. There can be no objection to wealthy Senators. On the contrary, the possession of large means by a United States Senator is an eminently desirable account. But the people demand that every candidate be given an equal chance, and that the Senate be a body of the very beginning of the race, the lack of riches. It is to be hoped that the approaching contest will be a clean one, and that no man will feel disgraced simply because he may not be the possessor of a large fortune. There is one man, who has been mentioned in connection with the Senatorship, are very rich men, and wealth alone constitutes the sole qualification of too many of them. Wealth must be one of the qualifications, but it must not be the only one, but that it must be accompanied with such abilities as would admit their possession to the aristocracy of brains at the National Capitol. Let us hope, then, that there will be no undue use of money in the settlement of the Senatorial question.

Not Much Sign of Reaction.

If the decent elements of the Legislature intend to assert themselves there is not a great deal of time to be lost. It is quite evident that things did not look yesterday very much like a reaction in favor of the right. There was rather the appearance of more easy breathing and a recovery from the fright of the day before, accompanied by a renewed determination to put through all the "jobs" in sight. There seems to be a case, prevalent that no matter how bad the situation may become, there will be no more than the usual howling. A month or so after the adjournment these model legislators expect that they will be hobnobbing with the constituents as if nothing at all had happened. But we take this occasion to state that things may not fall out just as anticipated. The patience of the people everywhere has been sorely tried, and it is impossible that the allusion of legislators, turned to handiwork will always be tamely endured. To think so would imply a loss of manhood on the part of the community.

In Favor of De Young.

It now looks as if the fight for United States Senator, to succeed Mr. Hearst, was pretty well narrowed down to M. H. De Young and M. M. Este. It is this time that the name of Mike De Young. He is young, full of vigor, has plenty of money to help support him, and has a record to make, which is ambitious enough to make a very bright one. Moreover, he is certainly has no entangling alliances with any of the big corporations and is certainly a brainy man. Maj. Bonebrake is our choice, but if Southern California is not "in it," give us De Young.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

A Los Angeles Lady Comes to Its Defense.

AGAINST ILLINOIS PROTESTERS.

She Says It Will Not Cause Family Jars or Interfere With the Household Duties of the Fair Sex.

UNIVERSITY, March 6.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] In the Times of March 6 editorial reference is made to the fact that the Woman Suffrage Bill has passed the State Senate, and also to a protest sent out by certain "society ladies" of Illinois in regard to a bill for the same law in their State.

The protest, like a few others of the same sort, assumes that to give woman the ballot is a perfectly new and untried experiment, certain to be followed by dire calamity.

This is far from true. Wyoming has had full suffrage for women for twenty years, and has engrained it in its constitution.

The family discord argument has been disproven completely. The writer met a Wyoming man and asked him with reference to this. His laugh was reassuring. "Madam," said he, "we western men are not tyrants."

Men and women have gone there opposed, and been thoroughly converted to the doctrine of equal rights by the workings of the same. The governors, judges, ministers—prominent people of all the land—have given the most convincing testimony in its favor, which space will not allow to be quoted.

A certain judge went out there from one of the largest cities in the Northwest.

"I asked the lawyers," he said, "men who would know, if this made family discord and they said they had yet to hear of a single case of the kind."

And the women do not vote as their husbands do in the sense that is generally understood. They are a class of more independent voters, and have forced both parties to put clean men before the people if they would have them elected.

The elections have been most orderly owing to their presence.

This is not opinion or dogmatic statement; it is fact that can be proven on the highest testimony.

It ought to count for something, that in the last twenty years, when the Legislature has said a word about repealing the law and the rest would not second his motion, simply laughed at him for suggesting it.

Washington had woman suffrage and let it by treaty, as they have lawyers say, because the women used the ballot too well and the lawless elements combined and silenced their voices.

Twenty-two States have school suffrage, and England, Scotland, Wales, Canada and nearly all the provinces have municipal suffrage.

Our own State of Kansas has municipal suffrage and the Legislature is doing its best to extend it.

"There is none so blind as he who will not see."

"Society ladies," however excellent they may be in their own particular direction, are not the ones to see the practical workings of things and learn the need as well as the justice of this reform.

Mary Livermore herself was once so opposed to such movements that she would not go to hear a woman speak. Imagine it!

She had helped an Irish woman with a drunken husband to support herself and children by cleaning the city prison in Chicago. The husband drew out the money she had deposited for her children's clothes and school books and drank it up. She came to Mrs. Livermore and told her of it, wild with grief.

"Get up, Mary," said Mrs. L., "of course he hasn't done it, my money is yours."

But he had, and said she, "I was nearly as wild as Mary herself when I heard it was true."

This is a queer sort of a situation, but it appears to be pressed upon them, and it is probable that a royal whitewash will follow.

Bribery in High Places.

[San Bernardino Times-Index.] A tremendous struggle is about to be had in the Legislature of this State, which will determine whether or not the next United States Senator. The Republicans have an overwhelming majority in both houses, and the Democrats will simply assume the attitude of spectators and look on.

It is openly announced that the Democrats are looking upon the matter as a free and lavishly used in determining the result. The Hon. M. M. Este has retired thus early from the fight. Felton and De Young are now arrayed against each other as the principal contestants, with the chances in favor of De Young. If money is to be the deciding element, little honor will flow from the office, no matter who is chosen. We suggest that H. H. Markham, Governor of the great State, employ a detective force to hunt down the rumors of bribery, and if possible fix it at the doors of the guilty parties. Markham could do this to no greater advantage, nor could he so certainly elevate himself in the eyes of his people, than to hunt down and punish bribe-takers, and punish them until their very names are a stench in the nostrils of the people.

THE SALE OF Lottery Tickets.

LOS ANGELES, March 9.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I have been in this city a little over a year, have come here, like many others, attracted by the beautiful health-giving climate, with a view of making this my future home. My attention has been called, and with your kind permission, I would ask the powers that be, why such a onesidedness is manifested in enforcement of the laws pertaining to certain well-known transgressions thereof, on the one hand, and the sale of Louisiana lottery tickets.

Some time ago the three police commissioners—who by the way, are still the same gentlemen composing that honorable body—others, not caring on record, and announced through the public press their laudable intention to suppress the traffic of lottery tickets, whereby from $15,000 to $200,000 per month is enriched from people who can ill-afford it, to enrich, first, the local sell-off in 15 per cent. of his gross sales and the home company for the remainder, thus making a very serious drain which is hurtful to all.

In conformity to the above expressed resolution, the Chief of Police set his men at work, and evidence was quickly and easily had sufficient to cause the arrest and conviction of quite a number of local dealers, and a lenient court imposed nominal fines, and a admonition that in case of a repetition of the offence a larger fine and possible imprisonment could be looked for.

These arrests brought many dealers to their senses, and some, who feared greater punishment, others, not caring to be violators of the law or in any way desiring to be classed among the criminal classes, promptly abandoned the traffic. But they did not all do so.

In fact there are about as many lottery tickets sold now as in days gone by, with this difference, that the sales are limited to fewer places, which never did stop at all and are openly defying the law every day. The Chief of Police keeps these men and their places of business as well now as he did a while ago, for they make no concealment of either, and men, women and children get tickets there at all hours of the day.

The only query to the unsophisticated seems to be: Were these few arrests made for the very purpose that was so well accomplished, viz: To drive out the small dealers, and concentrate the trade with the "big game" men?

It is even hinted by the knowing ones that all the fines inflicted on the "agents," were promptly paid by a remittance from the "Home Institution," so that all that was desired had been done, and that no more arrests would follow. But can this be so?

A TENDERFOOT.

Bruner's "Vindication."

[Sacramento Co. S. F. Examiner.] The charge against Assemblyman Bruner of selling a position in the San Francisco police department for $400 has been vigorously refuted by every body at the Capitol since the result of the investigation which the Sacramento statesman demands. The committee will meet the first time this evening, and no doubt the inquiry will be speedily made to a conclusion, for it is doubtful whether the Legislature can be kept together longer than another week.

Bruner's "vindication" is variously received about the Legislature. It is but the truth to say that Bruner, who gives him the credit of thoroughly believing the explanation he has made, and yet the desire seems general to help him out of the scrape. By the wire-pullers in the lobby and the members of easy virtue on the floor of both houses, Bruner is looked upon as the martyr of a noble cause. He has been viciously attacked by a newspaper; one of the time-honored privileges of machine politicians, viz, the sale of public patronage, has been held up to the light of day as a crime, and it is recognized that the time has arrived when the politicians must stand together and save themselves or they will be swept away. This is a queer sort of a situation, but it appears to be pressed upon them, and it is probable that a royal whitewash will follow.

A Battle With Burglars.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Burglars made a desperate attempt to enter the Haight street carhouse on Sunday morning. The watchman discovered a man entering the building through a hole made in the board wall. The man ordered the watchman to throw up his hands; instead, the latter drew a pistol and fired at the burglar. The man returned the fire and another man came firing, about a dozen shots were exchanged but no one was hit. The burglars finally ran and were not caught.

In "Hell's Half Acre."

LOUISVILLE, March 9.—A regular pitched battle was fought by a number of desperate men at a place called "Hell's Half Acre" in Virginia, near Cumberland Gap last evening. Hugh Johnson was killed; Garrett Southern and Mose Gibson were fatally shot, and two others were seriously wounded. The first two were arrested last October on suspicion of being the men who shot young Morris Willis. The fight was started by them in revenge against those who were witnesses against them.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Proctor left Washington this afternoon for Chattanooga. He will be accompanied on his tour by Quartermaster-General Hatchell and Lieut. Woodruff, late of Gen. Ruger's staff. There are no definite arrangements made for the trip, but it is expected all posts along the southern border of the States will be visited. The Secretary will be absent several weeks, and in the meantime the Assistant Secretary will act as secretary. A number of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives and prominent correspondents will accompany Secretary Proctor as far as Chattanooga and participate in the inspection of the battlefields and the receptions and banquets which are to occupy some three days in that locality.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

How the New Circuit Courts of Appeals Will Be Organized.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[By the Associated Press.] It is stated on the highest authority that the nine circuit judges provided for at the recent session of Congress will not be appointed for several months, the President being of the opinion that each of the new courts can be organized at the time fixed by the act (the third Wednesday in June) by an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the regular Circuit Judge and District Judge in each of the respective circuits.

Regardless of the fact that new circuit judges may not then have been appointed. The same authority said that this disposed of the report that there would be an extra session of the Senate for the consideration of these appointments.

A statement has been prepared by the Commissioner of Pensions giving a resume of the work of the Pension Bureau during the week ending February 28. The statement shows that during that time 7759 pension certificates of all classes were issued, representing $1,149,155 as first payment; of this number 5266 were issued under the new pension act of June 27, 1890.

desiring to remain at the hospital for treatment. Everything under the personal supervision of Dr. Wong. Consultation absolutely free. The following are a few of the testimonials of patients cured by him:

Last week I was a first-class candidate for a consumptive's grave. After I had the so-called best physicians in Los Angeles and they had failed to benefit me in the least, and when I had run down from 175 pounds weight to 100, I was told by Dr. Wong's medicine and was completely cured in seven weeks' time. I now weigh 185 pounds and am in the best of health. W. W. CHOW, Cal. Aug. 10, 1890.

Corner Twenty-third street and Grand avenue, Los Angeles, Cal. Aug. 10, 1890.

Four years ago my daughter, Virginia Bell, was treated by Dr. Wong for what eminent physicians called a "lung disease," and had pronounced her incurable after treating her for seven or eight years. Dr. Wong's medicine cured her in seven months' time. Two years ago my grandson became blind in one eye. Dr. Wong restored his sight and the eye to a perfectly healthy condition in three weeks' time. W. W. CHOW, Cal. Aug. 10, 1890.

For seven months I was treated by three different doctors, none of whom stated my disease was, during that time, I suffered terribly, and had to have my water drawn; finally in my feet, limbs, hands and face became swollen. I could not walk for a chair and could scarcely see, and was obliged to have my water drawn from the chest to keep me alive. My

A NEW SYSTEM.

Diseases and Their Treatment by Electricity.

While averse to drawing the attention of our readers to any advertisement in our columns which partakes of a medical character, we feel more than justified in over-riding this objection with respect to the announcement in this issue of the electro-magnetic system as practiced by Drs. Darrin.

Their theory of treatment consists of an improved system of local electro-magnetic applications, which is so immeasurably superior to the prevalent method of stomach drugging as to commend itself at once to the favor of sufferers.

No better evidence of the thorough efficacy of this treatment can be cited than in the case of Mr. James Thorndike of this city, who has expressed his willingness to vouch in every respect for the marvelous effects it accomplished in his case, as the following card will show:

Mr. Darrin: Dear Sir—One month ago I arrived here from Blair, Nebraska. I was so helpless from the effects of a severe cold that I had to be carried into Dr. Darrin's office. After a month's treatment by electricity, as given by Dr. Darrin, I am now able to walk the streets, and can be referred to.

Many other cases might be published but do not want of space here forbids.

Drs. Darrin's Specialties and Place of Business.

Drs. Darrin make a specialty of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and all nervous, chronic and private diseases, such as Loss of Manhood, Blood Taints, Syphilis, Gleet, Gonorrhea, Stricture, Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, or Loss of Desire or Power in man or woman. All peculiar Female Troubles, Irregular Menstruation, Displacement of the Uterus, etc., which have been treated, and will under no circumstances take a case that they cannot cure or benefit. Consultation free. Charges reasonable. The worthy poor treated free of all fees.

Dr. Darrin's office is located at 314 S. Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal. Office hours from 10 to 6 daily; evenings, 7 to 9; Sundays, 10 to 12.

For two months I suffered from impure blood and disordered stomach, together with a sore lip which failed to heal, and was finally treated to call on Dr. W. H. Darrin at his office, 639 Upper Main st. I had a consultation, and after an examination of my pulse he gave me a powder for my use and medicine internally, and he would cure me in a few days, and he did so. I am now well, and I feel that I have no more need of medicine, and I feel that I have no more need of medicine, and I feel that I have no more need of medicine.
